

15 March 2011

Dear Parents:

In light of the recent events in Japan, the Nova Student Senate would like to invite you and your child to participate in a student service auction. Our Nova young people desire to aid Japan, but have few resources with which to do so. Upper campus students are donating their time to help families with housework, yard work, homework, babysitting, and the like during spring break. Your child is invited to specify a type of work and the time for which they are able to serve, and other students/families will bid on that service During Thursday Joust, the student services will be auctioned off to Nova families, with all proceeds going to Red Cross relief efforts in Japan; there will also be a webpage from the Nova Parents page, where bids can be submitted starting at noon on Thursday. As this is not a Nova field trip, your family will be responsible for arranging all transportation. To ensure family support, we ask that if your child intends to participate, you please sign and return the enclosed permission slip.

Thank you, and see you Thursday!

Michaela Johnson, Praetor Populi, on behalf of the Student Senate
